

Letter From The Director of Instruction

Dear Megabytes!

Phew! What a year this has been!

The 2019-2020 school year marked the 10th year of our FLVS Full Time schools! In just 10 short years we have strived to transform online education one student at a time! Students have always been at the center of the decision-making process at FLVS, and we hope that you have felt that in the work you've done this year with your teachers and peers.

As the Director of Instruction, I oversee the three Full Time schools, and am constantly in awe of the commitment and dedication of our students. Your teachers are always sharing the neat activities they complete with you during class, but more importantly the excitement you show in your learning.

While this year has had a few bumps in the road, your resilience to overcome obstacles has continued to shine through regardless of those bumps! You have all persevered through such an unprecedented time in our world, and for that you are all prepared for whatever else may come our way in the future!

Megabytes by nature are trailblazers. I'm sure you've helped many of your non-online family and friends traverse this time with your tips and tricks for being successful online students! Your leadership and friendships have been a steadying force for those around you who are navigating a new way of learning.

We are so proud of all of you, and congratulations on another successful school year!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Santana

Dear Megabyte Families,

What an incredible year this has been! While we faced many challenges, including hurricanes and quarantines, our students and staff rose to meet and overcome every hurdle together. From meetups to dress-up days, from literacy nights to Leader in Me, we showed our school spirit and pride. As we visited classes this year, we could see that our students and staff really were "WILD About Learning!" We hope that they will never lose that love for learning and passion for teaching.

As you reflect on the past in this yearbook, we hope that you will also keep moving forward with pursuing your dreams to change the world for the better. Remember, all the skills you learn and habits you practice today will enable you to reach your future goals. We continue to be very proud of our students and staff and look forward to many more successful years at FLVS.

For our 5th graders that are moving on to middle school, we'd like to leave you with a bit of advice. It is an excerpt from Robert Fulghum's poem, All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten.

- Share everything.
 - Play fair.
 - Don't hit people.
 - Put things back where you found them.
 - Clean up your own mess.
 - Don't take things that aren't yours.
 - Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody.
- Don't ever underestimate your importance in this world.

We wish everyone a safe and healthy summer. Be sure to rest, read and enjoy time with families. Looking forward to an amazing 2020-2021 school year and we will see you in August!

Go Megabytes!
Sincerely,

Middle School Principal Letter

Dear Megabytes,

As I reflect on our 2019-2020 school year, I am reminded of how resilient and steadfast we are. To think, that this year's graduating seniors were born into this world post 9/11, during a time of great uncertainty, and when online education was "just a thing of the future" and now they are online graduates during our lifetime's first major pandemic, it may seem unimaginable, but here we are, persevering! However uncertain and unimaginable these times may feel, there is one thing I am certain of; Megabytes are both resilient and steadfast in trail blazing the future of this world and education!

Beyond the trials and tribulations brought to us as we closed this year out, I am also reminded of the incredible accomplishments held by each of you. We once again inducted one of the largest number of students into our National Junior Honor's Society. We are a middle school of over 1,500 students, with teachers who delivered over 1,000 live lessons, this year alone! With each passing year we are proving that online education is POWERFUL and has a very real purpose in the future of education. You all continue to blaze the trail in online learning, and I am so proud of each of you. I have enjoyed joining you all during Morning Announcements, live lessons, playing fun and engaging games with you, learning about your families, your hobbies, your pets, and all the amazing things in your life that you are working towards and proud of. I thank you for welcoming me, along with all your amazing teachers into your homes "virtually" every day. We have been honored to serve you and celebrate with you! To our accomplished 8th graders, we wish you continued success as you embark on your next big educational adventure in high school. Be confident! You have been armed with everything you need to continue this amazing journey.

With the closing of this year, and the dreaming of next, I encourage each of you to keep dreaming big, focus on always being better than you were yesterday, and never miss a moment to practice kindness and gratitude. Beyond all this, continue being the "helpers", continue to work hard and serve as role models to your peers, continue to shine in your local communities. FLVS Megabytes are destined for greatness, and we are so proud of each of you!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jessica Smith, Principal

High School Principal Letter

Dear Students,

This school year has been somewhat of a story, or a script, or maybe even a movie. From the smoothstart we had, to the amazing success you demonstrated throughout the first semester, there were no indicators of where we were headed during the middle of the second semester. Over the last few years, we have experienced hurricanes and other challenges in which you, along with our teachers and staff, have worked through by rising up to these challenges.

The pandemic we are living through right at this moment in time is something that you will remember.

Our seniors will remember how it changed the end of their high school years. We will all remember the impact it has had on our families, communities, state, and beyond. The reason we will remember is because we, you especially, did not let this slow you down in your school goals. You continued to work and complete the requirements of your courses. You continued to support those friends that may have needed it during this time. You stood tall and made it through this experience.

It is said that our experiences shape who we are. I believe that and I see it in everyone I meet. This experience will shape who we are in some form. I hope that it shows you how resilient you can be, and how you can face the toughest of challenges and work through them. You will also know that the teachers in your life care about you as a person, and care about your well-being. Let us thank them for being there even when their families were facing their own challenges. They ensured that you were still their priority.

As a Megabyte you are already part of a unique education system that has led the way for online learning for many years. By choosing FLVS FTHS you have already reached far beyond what most students will experience in high school. If you are returning next year, then I wish you a great summer and look forward to your return in the fall. If you have finished your high school years, then I wish you the best.

Take all of your experiences, follow your dreams, and go make a positive impact in our world.

Sincerely,
Mr. Henson

Senior Class President Letter

Congratulations, Graduates!

To quote many Senior Class Presidents before me (and many to follow): "We made it." I promised you during the Spring of Junior Year that we would not just survive, but thrive during our Senior Year. Though I could not have known the challenges we would face, we thrived all the same. It is true that every Senior, every year, faces obstacles they must overcome, conquer, or solve; this is a defining trait of Senior Year. However, the FLVS Class of 2020, our class, has faced more than any before us...

As part of a virtual learning community, we have faced problems that are foreign to those in brick-and-mortar schools. We work on computers, interacting online through clicking buttons and watching screens. We rarely see each other, with Face-2-Face meetings being once a month and scattered around the state. We regularly battle virtual complications, falling behind in our work if the power goes out. As part of the world-wide Class of 2020, we have faced problems new to us all. We have had events like Grad Bash and Graduation canceled, losing the opportunity to witness events meant to celebrate our accomplishments. We were corralled into our homes during quarantines around the world, cutting off social interaction with our classmates and friends. We faced an invisible foe, a virus, for months on end. If you focus on just these obstacles, it will seem like Senior Year was ill-fated, doomed to be an unfortunate memory...

But what you must remember are the good things, the lights shining through the shadow hanging over the year.

Focus on these memories: The friendships you've created, built on mutual respect and interests. The skills you've learned, through classes, clubs, and activities away from the computer screen. The differences you've made, volunteering throughout the year with your classmates and teachers. These simple acts show that we have conquered the ever-challenging mountain that was Senior Year. Despite facing never-ending obstacles, we proved ourselves to be determined and adaptable. When we could not study for a test using our virtual resources, we found books at a library and studied there. When we could not meet our friends in person, we connected over social media. We found the solution to every problem that came our way, and in doing so built our path to climb the mountain. So yes, we did prove ourselves to be dedicated and true. We proved ourselves to be champions.

"Champions embrace the challenge while others hide from it." This was once said to me by a mentor and friend, and now it is my final piece of advice to you. By conquering the mountain of Senior Year, you've shown you are dedicated, charitable, adaptable, and true Megabyte Champions. Never forget this spirit, this defining aspect of our Class. Whenever life challenges you, whenever you are pushed down, do not let fear of the challenge keep you down. Stand up, find the solution, and keep going. It is because of this spirit that I know you will go far, no matter what your path from here may be!

"Aim for the moon. Even if you miss, you will land among the stars."

Best Wishes,
Matthew Ferguson | Senior Class President

Career Day

Career Day was super fun. We had people come from different kinds of jobs such as, attorneys, sport players, etc.. The students were fascinated and loved learning about jobs.

FLVS Middle School Talent Show

The Second Annual Megabyte Talent Show allowed Middle school students to present their talents on May 22nd. Students sang, played instruments, and even presented some hobbies that they are really good at. All in all, we had 17 performers this year. This talent show was a total success and these students are very talented. Let's give these students a big round of applause!

Face to Face meetups are in different places all around Florida, sectioned off by each county. These meetups allow students to hang out with friends from school in person. Face to Face meetups also allow students to create new friends and expand their horizons. During February we even donated old clothes and food, as well as did community service. Face to Face meetups are a great way for students and teachers to have fun and socialize.

The Academic Team competes annually in the Commissioner's Academic Challenge at Walt Disney World, competing against the best of the best of dozens of Florida counties. The Academic Team club meets weekly to practice for competition and select the 6 members who will travel to Disney in April. Students participate in fast-paced trivia games in the areas of math, science, social studies, language arts, world language, music, and the humanities.

American Sign Language Club (4-5)

Sponsors: Marisa Ray and Elise Perez

American Sign Language club provides 4th & 5th grade students with knowledge of the history of sign language, the deaf community, services provided by the Florida School of the Deaf and Blind, and basic sign language including - finger-spelling alphabet, holiday signs and songs, and other basic beginning language words. Students performed You are My Sunshine at the Club Awards Ceremony in the Spring of 2019 and plan to do it again in 2020. The American Sign Language club has an open class time format for students to interact with the language and ask questions.

Book Club (K-5)

Sponsor: Amber Fish

K-5 Book Club is a time for readers to make connections to the books they have read and take part in discussions with their peers. Each club member reads titles from the current year's Sunshine State Reading list. Club members share their love of reading with one another.

Builder's Club (6-8)

Sponsor: Chestina Cloum

Builder's Club is where we "build leaders." In this club, we coordinate events, serve our community (both our communities and FLVS), and have fun! So far, we have hosted the Red Ribbon Week event, and we have planned out other events like Virtual Snow Day. Not only does this club help others, but it helps make bonds between one another. This club has to work together if we want to be able to do anything.

Cheerleading Club (K-5)

Sponsor: Bobbi Jane Vitale

The purpose of the FLVS Cheerleading Club (K-5) is to develop in each student a sense of enthusiasm, teamwork, and integrity. The FLVS Cheerleading Club offers a self-esteem building environment that uses growth mindset to teach fundamental cheer skills and knowledge. Here is some important information which will hopefully answer any questions about our time together. We are proud to be FLVS Cheerleaders!

Chess Club (3-5)

Sponsor: Shannon Story

We teach students how to play chess, foster sportsmanship, and have students play against each other during club time.

Coding Club (3-5)

Sponsor: Denise Gelzinis

Students will be using Scratch, a visual programming language, to create their own projects, and will have the chance to share their creativity during club time.

Cooking Club (K-5)

Sponsor: Kelly Moye

Our fun and interactive Cooking Club makes delicious creations to share with family and friends. During club time, we make a recipe which you can create with us at home or simply watch us create on the webcam. You also have the choice to make simple, age-appropriate recipes at home! Each time a chef makes a recipe at home they receive a badge which is placed in the recipe book we compile throughout the year. We learn so much about cooking, experiment with different recipes to share, and have fun with friends in club time.

Mega News Network (9-12)

Sponsor: Rose Rodriguez

The Mega News Network or MNN is the first student television network club of its class since its cast members produce the show from many different locations all over the state of Florida. Our show airs live every 1st Monday of the month delivering school news, events, and fun content to our school audience.

National Elementary Honor Society

Sponsors: Jenny Kirby and Meghan Ortiz

National Elementary Honor Society is a club that will help students demonstrate excellence in scholarship, service, leadership, character, and citizenship. It will also challenge students to develop further through activities within their school environment as well as community.

National Honor Society (9-12)

Sponsors: Kalin Gunn and
Suzy DeMyer

The National Honor Society (NHS) is the nation's premier organization established to recognize outstanding high school students. More than just an honor roll, NHS serves to honor those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. It is estimated that more than one million students participate in activities of NHS and there are chapters in all 50 states, as well as many US territories. Chapter membership not only recognizes students for their accomplishments but challenges them to develop further through active involvement in school activities and community service.

National Junior Honor Society (6-8)

Sponsor: Megan Lee-Morey

The National Junior Honor Society, or NJHS, is here to help our communities and be leaders. We perform over 2000 individual service hours per year. We also do 2 group projects per year.

Peer Tutors (8-12)

Sponsor: Jennifer Garry

Peer Tutors volunteer one or more hours a week to assist students with learning math concepts, focusing on middle school levels and Algebra 1. They also help students develop good study skills.

Photography Club (3-5)

Sponsors: Candace Walker
and Janette Mauri

FLVS Photography Club is an online club for beginners that meet monthly to enhance skills in photography, editing, and photo management. The mission of the club is to foster and encourage growth of artistic vision and technical knowledge, while exploring the connection between the eye, the camera, and surroundings.

Robotics Club (2-5)

Sponsors: Stephanie McElveen
and Joy Clark

In Robotics Club, members explore coding and robotics while deepening understanding of science and engineering topics. Some topics include forces working against each other and environmental issues. Students are encouraged to ask questions and solve problems using robotics.

Science Club (6-8)

Sponsor: Susan DeBlois

The Science Club is for a group of students who have an interest in learning about Global Problems and discussing solutions. Student's would be involved in the following activities:

Students meet to discuss global problems and possible solutions already proposed by scientists. Students discuss and develop ideas for solutions everyday people can do.

Students create short presentations of problems and solutions for PSA's.

Students decide which PSA's to present. And the students present the PSA's.

Senior Class Cabinet Club

Sponsors: Erin Edwards and Kellie Shellenberger

The Senior Class Club hosts monthly class meetings in which we share important information with fellow seniors and get to know each other! We also create face-to-face meetings and events. One of the biggest events that our club hosts is Grad Bash, where Seniors can congregate at Universal, and have the whole park to themselves!

Spanish Club (3-5)

Sponsors: Maria Erickson
and Gretchen Solar

The Spanish Club is an interactive experience to learn about the different Spanish-speaking countries. We learn about the cultures, music, food, traditions and geography. We learned information through talks, songs, videos, games, and presentations. We are also hands-on, with activities to create arts and crafts from the countries and we also prepare a few recipes from those countries.

Spanish National Honor Society (10-12)

Sponsor: Lisa Rodriguez

Spanish National Honor Society also know as "Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica" is an active group of students who enjoy learning Spanish and earn high grades. We are committed to furthering our knowledge of the language and culture plus sharing it with others. To that end, we participate in Hispanic Heritage Month & World Fest, act as peer tutors for Spanish students, investigate & plan Spanish cultural field trips inviting the entire Full Time High School, create and play games about Spanish with the Elementary Spanish Club.

Student Council (6-8)

Sponsor: Beth Kennedy

FLVS Full Time Middle School Students, do you want to make a difference in your middle school? Join our student council to help make decisions for the benefit of you, Megabytes, at Florida Virtual School and try your hand at leadership.

Student Council (9-11)

Sponsors: Lisa Denton,
Shay Wallace and Ms. Leandra

Do you want to make a difference? Join our student council to help make decisions for the betterment of the students at Florida Virtual School and to try your hand at leadership.

T.V.
Production
(Grade 5)

Sponsors: Sabrina Edwards
and Melissa Gilliland

FTNN works with numerous clubs and staff members to advertise their events.

Members play active roles with club decision making, offering suggestions, and brainstorming innovative ways to engage/capture the attention of their audience.

The Megabyte
Broadcast
(6-8)

Sponsor: Beth Kennedy

Crew Members of The Megabyte Broadcast Club have the honor and opportunity to produce the school news show! They may also enter middle school contests for quality storytelling, filmmaking, and journalistic ethics. Club members plan, write, shoot, and edit feature stories, podcasts, music videos, and public service announcements.

Yearbook
Club (6-12)

Sponsor: Nicole Calafrancesco

FLVS Full Time Mega Yearbook is a collection of layouts designed by FLVS Full Time Middle and High students to depict student life, clubs, and events throughout the school year.

Club Award Ceremony

Students and club sponsors got together for the annual Club Awards Ceremony. There were all kinds of club display boards and performances from our Sign Language, Cheerleading, Glee and Fine Arts clubs. Fine Arts Club performed a scene from "Into the Woods," and they even had a live bird fly above the audience, everyone was fascinated. After the performances, we had the ceremony. Some of the students were presented with a medal and a certificate.

CLASS OF

"All dreams can come true if we have the courage to pursue them" -Walt Disney

We are so proud that you had the determination to follow your dreams. We are so proud of you.

Love, Mommy and Daddy

TRISTAN OSEJE

Our dear sweet Tristan,

Some people are brought into your life for a reason, you are that for so many people.

For Papi- you bring him such joy, between the love of cars and shoes, the love of tennis and anything that has to do with outside. He loves having his own little "mini me"

For Mommy- you bring sunshine and light. You make her smile constantly, laugh when it is inappropriate and act like a kid. You are her very own special angel.

For Kelly- you are her pride and joy. You challenge her and drive her. You make her so happy and mad all at the same time. You give her someone to be silly with.

For April- You challenge her, just for her not in a good way. You give her someone she will always be able to count on.

For Tia- you bring her the most joy. You give her a reason to get out of bed each day. You keep her active and she loves you so very much.

For Abuelo- You bring such a smile to his face. From the first day he held you- that was it, there was nobody else in the room. You bring him such pride and such joy. He would give you everything he had if he could.

For Oma- You give her someone to share her interests with, you love art, puzzles and learning. She loves having you around.

You are smart, funny, so very kind, loving and always see the good in everything. You are so loved by so many people.

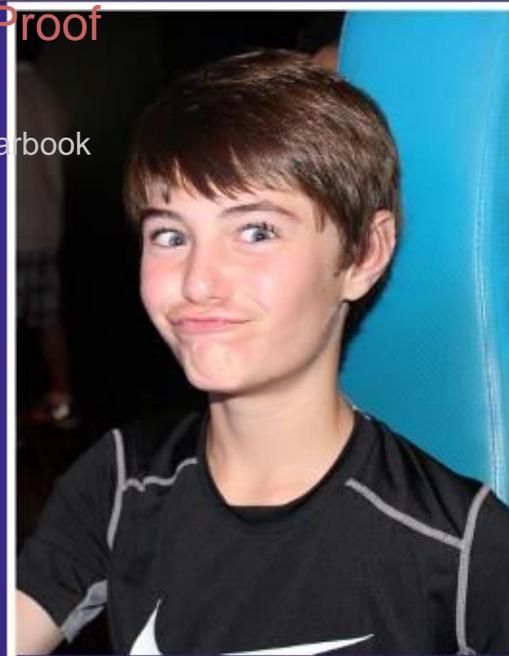

Much love, your ENTIRE family!

Ms. Calafrancesco
Club Sponsor

When I joined the yearbook club last school year, I had no idea I'd ever be the Editor in Chief. I'd like to thank everyone who helped, participated, and designed pages for the yearbook this year.

Because of the yearbook club, I got to work with some incredible people. Serenity and Trinity, it has been such a wonderful year working with you two. I am so proud and grateful for your effortless work on the Student Life pages. You both have made this year of the yearbook club go by so smoothly. I'm beyond thankful to know you both and have you on our yearbook staff. I look forward to working with you next year!

I'd also like to thank our club sponsor, Ms. Calafrancesco.

Ms. C, I don't even know where to start, we've been through so much! I think our gray hairs were restored back to their original color after we got mostly everything done on time this year! I will forever be grateful for the amazing times we had this year and for the years to come. Thank you for all your time and help.

Happy Summer! :)
